RAVENNA HIGH SCHOOL INTERNS MAKE AN IMPACKT

Ravenna High School seniors Kendall Chalkwater, Ben Hatcher, Emmanuel Miller, Ben Rainone, and Meleah Sawastuk spent time serving with Raven Packs this spring, getting involved with a variety of daily Raven Packs operations including menu planning, ordering, inventory, snack pack assembly and delivery, packing day prep, and Raven Packs distribution. Interns were members of the honors civics class at RHS, working to gain a better understanding of civic responsibility and then putting their learning into action by serving with various local organizations. Raven Packs benefitted greatly from their involvement, and we wish all our interns success in their post-high school endeavors!
